CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

2nd J. MARTÍNEZ LOZANO INTERNATIONAL WATERCOLOUR AWARD

1. The purpose of this Award is to give recognition to the artistic career of a watercolourist, nominated by a group or entity.
2. Each group or entity will select and invite a maximum two watercolourists.
3. Only an original watercolour by the selected artist will be admitted. The work must be unpublished and executed purely with watercolour. The theme is of the artist's choice and must not be smaller than half a sheet (50 x 70 cm.)
4. The work must be delivered already framed. It can be sent, or delivered personally to: Museu de l'Aquarel·la – Fundació Martínez Lozano, Casa de Cultura, Plaça Major, 1, 17490 Llança.
5. The work can be entered from the 7th June to July 30th.
6. Costs for delivery and return of the work will be charged to the artist or representing group or entity. The Watercolour Museum – Martínez Lozano Foundation holds no responsibility for any loss, damage, or theft that could occur during transport and handling.
7. The registration form attached to these conditions must be attached to the work. This form must be returned by the organization via fax or e-mail in order to acknowledge receipt of the work.
8. The Jury will be external and will be proposed by the Board of the Watercolour Museum, and will be presented on June 7th, the date of the prize giving ceremony for the 1st. J. Martínez Lozano International Watercolour Award.
9. This year the Jury will present a single prize, and this will be made public via a communication to the artist, to the representing entity, the participants and the media.
10. The prize giving for the 2nd J. Martínez Lozano International Watercolour Award will take place during the ceremony of the following year's award. The winning artist will be presented with the commemorative prize and an exhibition will be organized in the Exhibition Room at the Casa de Cultura, and a catalogue of the work will be published in colour.

11. The winning watercolour will go on to form part of the content of the Watercolour Museum, with all the rights that this inclusion may involve.

12. The organization will set aside some dates for the holding of an exhibition of the presented works. In the accompanying catalogue, apart from indicating the names of the artists and their works, the names of the groups or entities that have collaborated in the award will also be mentioned. Throughout the time that the work is in possession of the Watercolour Museum, and for the duration of the exhibition, the organization will take out an insurance policy for all the registered works.

13. Once the exhibition has been held, a schedule will be established for the return of the works, which will explain the system for collection in person and the form of delivery using a transport agency, in this case, as stated in point 6. The cost will be met by the artist or representing entity.

14. The Watercolour Museum – Martínez Lozano Foundation reserves the right to take decisions that it considers suitable, that are not set out in these conditions, for the smooth running of the competition. The fact of participating in it implies the total acceptance of these conditions and the relinquishment of all forms of legal claim.
